

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 1:09cr61LG-RHW

AARON BRENSIKE

AGREED PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

PURSUANT to a separate Plea Agreement between AARON BRENSIKE, by and with the consent of his attorney, and the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (hereinafter "the Government"), AARON BRENSIKE agrees that the following findings are correct, and further agrees with the adjudications made herein. Accordingly, the Court finds as follows:

1. The defendant is fully aware of the consequences of having agreed to forfeit to the Government his interests in and to the hereinafter described property, having been apprised of such by his attorney and by this Court; and he has freely and voluntarily, with knowledge of the consequences, entered into a Plea Agreement with the Government to forfeit such property.

2. The defendant agrees the following assets:

One Dell Inspiron E1505 laptop, service tag #G5YGCB1, express service code 35188717645; and

One Systemax CPU, serial #106103267, plus keyboard, mousepad, and speakers, constitute or were derived from proceeds that the defendant obtained, directly or indirectly, as a result of the offense charged in the Indictment and/or were used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of the offense charged in the Indictment and/or was involved in the offense charged in the Indictment. Such property is, therefore, subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 1467, Title 18, United States Code.

3. The defendant has been apprised that Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Section 982, Title 18, United States Code, require the Court to order the forfeiture of the assets described in paragraph 2 above, at, and as a part of, the sentencing proceeding. The defendant does hereby waive such requirement and the requirement that the forfeiture be made a part of the sentence as ordered by the Court in the document entitled, "Judgment in a Criminal Case." The defendant and his attorney further authorize the Court to enter this order immediately, and agree that the forfeiture ordered hereunder will be a part of the sentence of the Court whether ordered at that proceeding or not and whether or not attached as a part of the said Judgment in the Criminal Case.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED AS FOLLOWS:

- a. That the defendant shall forfeit to the United States:

One Dell Inspiron E1505 laptop, service tag #G5YGCB1, express service code 35188717645; and

One Systemax CPU, serial #106103267, plus keyboard, mousepad, and speakers

- b. The Court has determined, based on defendant's plea agreement, that the following property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 1467, Title 18, United States Code, that the defendant had an interest in such property¹ and that the government has established the requisite nexus between such property and such offenses.
- c. The United States shall publish notice of the order and its intent to dispose of the property in such a manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the Subject Property.
- d. Any person, other than the above named defendant, asserting a legal interest in the Subject Property may, within thirty days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his alleged interest in the Subject Property, and for an amendment of the order of forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).
- e. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3), this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing [or before sentencing if the defendant consents] and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment. If no third party files a timely claim, this Order

¹ Rule 32.2(b) provides that the court must defer determining whether or not the defendant has an interest in the forfeited party until the ancillary proceeding when third parties are entitled to contest the forfeiture on the ground that the property belongs to them, and not to the defendant. However, if no third party files a claim, the court must make a determination that the defendant (or some combination of defendants) has an interest in the property before the preliminary order of forfeiture becomes final. See Rule 32.2(c)(2). In some situations, it may be advisable to foreclose the separate determination of interest under Rule 32.2 by having the court make that determination "up front" upon entering the preliminary order of forfeiture. In other situations, e.g., where the defendant is planning to object to the order of forfeiture on the ground that the property belongs to a third party, it may be better to take advantage of Rule 32.2(b) and postpone the determination of interest until the ancillary proceeding.

shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2).

- f. Any petition filed by a third party asserting an interest in the Subject Property shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the Subject Property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the Subject Property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.
- g. After the disposition of any motion filed under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.
- h. The United States shall have clear title to the Subject Property following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2) for the filing of third party petitions.

The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

SO ORDERED AND ADJUDGED this 16th day of October 2009.
